

Ethereal Sunsets

Dm

F

Walk, walk a path through the trees,

C

To the rock and the scree

Dm

And sit close to the edge.

Look, look down at the stream,

It's a river of dreams,

The music in our heads.

Chorus

C

Sit, sit and hold hands,

G

Forget the old plans,

Dm

They were built on regrets.

Watch, watch the lines in the sky,

See the light flying by

To ethereal sunsets.

Drink, drink in the view,

Its all we can do,

Before it fades to grey.

Hold, hold on to the time,

Remember the rhyme,

And the way it was played.

Chorus

Sit, sit and hold hands,

Forget the old plans,

They were built on regrets.

Watch, watch the lines in the sky,

See the light flying by

To ethereal sunsets.

Instrumental Chorus

Recall, recall a deep past,

With its mystical mask

And its song of the land.

Here, here on the rocks,

Where the summer breeze stops,

We must sing or be damned.

Chorus

Sit, sit and hold hands,

Forget the old plans,

They were built on regrets.

Watch, watch the lines in the sky,

See the light flying by

To ethereal sunsets.
