

Learning (Talent is Timeless)

I can't remember when I could not walk.
I cannot remember when I could not talk.
I vaguely remember, learning to read,
Parents and teachers saying to me...

It's never too late to take your first step.
It's never too late to make progress.
It's never too late to get yourself there
It's never too late 'cos talent is timeless

I can remember first meeting you
Love and dreams of all the things we'd do
And so we set out, without any rules
Learned as we went along, it's what you have to do.

It's never too late to take your first step.
It's never too late to make progress.
It's never too late to get yourself there
It's never too late 'cos talent is timeless

I now remember, there was a time
When my words were poetry, written in scribbled lines
But they were stolen, by work and the job
All the rhyme was lost, dropped and forgot

Learning (Talent is Timeless)

It's never too late to take your first step.

It's never too late to make progress.

It's never too late to get yourself there

It's never too late 'cos talent is timeless

So here am I, the here and now .... Learning

It's never too late to take your first step.

It's never too late to make progress.

It's never too late to get yourself there

It's never too late 'cos talent is timeless - Talent is timeless
