

Diversity

F# F# G#m

G#m

F# F# G#M

There are different types of fish that are swimming in my sea,

G#m

F# F# G#m

That's the way I would like my whole long life to be.

G#m

F# F# G#m

I do not want everything to be too much like me.

G#m

Different fish add colour and I like diversity.

Chorus

C#m

A million colours, all swimming at different speeds.

D#6

Different sorts of fish upon the barrier reef.

There are people that I know get stuck upon one track.

Surfing on the Internet they get positive feedback,

Too much the same, a different voice is what they need.

One view is always white, alternatives are black.

Chorus

Instrumental verse and chorus

A fact of evolution is that nothing stays the same.

Take a simple word and we can spell it different ways.

There is no fixed position in the troughs between the waves.

Floating on our evening tide, the oceans of our days.
