

Supergroup by Any Other Name

A C D E throughout

Chorus

Let's hear it for the given name, let's hear it for the given name!

The one we threw away when we went chasing fame.

Let's hear the song again, let's hear the song again!

We are a supergroup by any other name.

My name is Richard and I am the biggest star

In an aging supergroup, you all know who we are

So, with a drum roll, welcome to the show.

My name is Richard but you can call me Ringo!

Chorus

My name is Eric and my second name is Clapp.

My blistering solos, full on guitar attack.

I'll play a burst of blues when I come walking on.

My name is Eric but you can call me Clapton.

Instrumental Chorus

My name is Robert and I am the lyricist.

I play with words a lot, my lines will spin and twist.

As I get older I become the Zimmerman.

My name is Robert but you can call me Dylan.

Chorus

Supergroup by Any Other Name

My name is Gordon I'm the younger guy on bass

Hooking in with Richard, we hold rhythm on the stage

And with a blonde hair nod, I'll count the singer in

My name is Gordon but you can call me Sting!

Instrumental Chorus

My name is Reg and I will play the keys.

I am the voice that the band accompanies.

So, let the show begin and we will have some fun,

My name is really Reg but you can call me Elton!

Chorus & Outro
