

Mr Sharpe & A Miner's Daughter

Amelie was reading

Am D

Beneath the duvet on her bed

The romance she was seeking

Just word play in her head

Mr Sharpe came calling

From over the water

Mr Sharpe came courting

F# C#m

A miner's daughter

Amelie was dreaming

Absorbed and believing

From a dull life escaping

Her grey world retreating

Mr Sharpe came calling

From over the water

Mr Sharpe came courting

A miner's daughter

Amelie was far away

Wrapped up in her feelings

Under the covers she quietly lay

With just the sound of her breathing

Handsome hero from nowhere

Like a light in the coal mine

To save a caged canary

And love her for all time
