

Bones

Bm / F#m / Em D / F#m

F#m A B

The light drops of summer rain fall onto my bones

F#m A B

I am alive again, no longer alone

I sense the touch of her, a moment just for us

Breathing fresh air again as she sweeps away the dust

CHORUS

G Dm F C

For I have lain here for so long

G Dm F C

Beneath the surface, hidden from the sun

G Dm F C

Cruel time has worn me to the bones

G Dm F Bm

Remnants of a life that no one – owns

Bm / F#m / Em D / F#m

Bm / F#m / Em D / F#m

A silent moment, lying there with her

I cling to soil and rock but she is not deterred

Greeting her with silence, stretched through centuries

She knows I will speak again, we all have histories

CHORUS

Bm / F#m / Em D / F#m

Bm / F#m / Em D / F#m

Bones

F#m

A

B

We build connection that stretches through the years

F#m

B

No words between us, my whisper all she hears

F#m

B

I feel release again, I will tell her all I know

F#m

B

Bm

For she is come from me, in a seed I sowed

F#m

So long ago.
