

Afterthought

C#m

D#

I am just an afterthought
In the corner of your mind
I am just a turning point
On the crooked path of time

F#m

C#m

'Coz I am just a memory

Em

That's been hiding all these years

F#m

C#m

I am just the echo

Am

That you hear

I am just a half tune
That replays in your head
Know that I still sleep here
In the darkness of your bed

Gm

Dm

A filter on your consciousness

I screen out all the light
Make sure that you remember
And can never make it right

VERSE Instrumental

Used to think it was important
But now I am your doubt
Make sure that you remember
You can never let me out

I am just an afterthought
Looping through your brain
Sapping at your strength now
As I play my song again.

'Coz I am just a memory
That's been hiding all these years
I am just the echo
That you hear
