

The Song of the Sea

Bernard Dady

Riff x 2

D G

In a house near the sea

F A

By his window he plays

D G

But each song that he writes

F A

Washed away by the waves

He plays.....

Riff x 2

D G

Each day after dawn

F A

She walks on the sand

D G

With her feet in the sea

F A

And a shell in her hand

While he plays.....

Riff x 2

D G

But she never hears him

F A

Or ever looks his way

D G

Her whole world is silenced

F A

By the foam and the spray

Riff x 2

Dm Gm

What if I play notes

F A

But can't write a love song

Dm Gm

What if one morning

F A

I look and she's gone

Riff x 2

D

G

Another day at the window

F

A

With his hands on the keys

D

G

Each chord that he plays

F

A

Is absorbed by the sea

He plays.....

Riff x 2

D

G

He watches the woman

F

A

As she passes so near

D

G

She stops for a moment

F

Puts the shell to her ear

She hears.....

Riff x 2

D

G

As the sun lights the morning

F

A

She looks up at him

D

G

A breeze catches her voice

F

A

As she starts to sing

Riff x 2

Dm

Gm

With no words to my love song

F

A

What will I do

Dm

Gm

Hope the song of the sea

F

A

Pulls me through—ooo

Riff x 2 as outro
