Part 1- Aftermath (instrumental)

Gm F# G#m Cm

Part 2 – The Curse

C#m F#

You were a truly evil man

Thought you were the next big thing

Directing crimes against humanity

Dispensing all our suffering

But now you're in the aftermath

And you are drawing your last breath

We curse you and announce to you

What will happen on your death

There will be eternal consciousness

Which you will spend alone

Revisiting the terror

In the darkness you have grown

Gm

And you will see the faces

Am

Of soldiers as they died

Dm

And you will see the faces

F

Of mothers as they cried

And you will see the children

With their blank and staring eyes

And you will feel the suffering

Forever

Part 3 – The Edge of Eternity (Instrumental)
