

In the Afterglow

Bernard Dady

Intro

D Em

Am D

Em C Verse 1

Sitting in the afterglow

D G

Of a pink and purple sky

C G

The scatter of the red light

Em D

As the day turns into night

Em C

The sun sets o'er the Western Isles

D G

Sinking in the sea

Em C

I am wondering which pathway

D

Awaits me

Em C Verse 2

Waiting for the moonlight

D G

With her pale and gentle smile

C G

A wisp of cloud to clothe her

Em D

As she tarries here a while

Em C

Darkness all around her

D G

And the jewelry of the stars

Em C D

Whispering her secrets from afar

C G Bridge

Sitting alone

D G

On this hard seat of stone

C G

A signpost at the crossroads

D

Of my life

C G

A carpet of grass

D G

All a man can ask

C G

Bathing in the afterglow

D

Of twilight

Instrumental Verse 3

Em C Verse 4
Looking behind me
D G
At the shadows on the land
C G
The echoing of waves
Em D
As they pound the rock to sand
Em C
The hills now turn from green to grey
D G
A dreamworld fit for ghosts
Em C
I am wandering a pathway
D
No one knows

Em C Verse 5
And the final ark of sunlight
D G
Submerges beneath the waves
C G
I rise back to my feet again
Em D
For I am the journey's slave
G Am
But whatever road I wander
G Em
Whatever place I go
C G
I will always carry with me
D G
The colours of the afterglow
